Piano

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The second system begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and chords. There are also dynamic markings like mf and f. The piece concludes with a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand and a final bass note in the left hand.
